

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCESSING THE “IT WAS FORTY YEARS AGO TODAY...” DATABASE’

TO ENTER: Click “Launch Database”

The database will open on the record for the first (known) event of performance in Wales. Each separate event (work of performance art) is represented by a separate event record.

TO BROWSE INSIDE A RECORD

Use the navigation tabs at the top of the record to display:

MAIN ENTRY – factual details (artist, title, date, venue etc), sample of written and photographic documentation.

TRACES – an index of available documentary materials and their locations

IMAGES – further photographic documentation (if available).

TO BROWSE BETWEEN RECORDS

Use the arrow buttons at the top of the page to move back or forward between records. Please do not use your web browser settings to move back between pages – you may have to re-enter the database.

SEARCH THE DATABASE

1. Click “Search”

2. A search form will open.
3. Type your search term or any combination of terms into any of the fields in the form.

For example, to search for performances by Ivor Davies in 1968 enter ‘Davies, Ivor’ in the artist field and 1968 in the date field.

4. Click “go” to execute the search

Tips:

- If you are searching for an artist try both the “search by artist” and “search by collaborator” option (successively, not simultaneously!).
- To narrow your results search several fields simultaneously – eg.: artist: Ono date: 1968 location: Cardiff
- enter names as follows: ‘Ono, Yoko’ [not Yoko Ono] [surname, first name] or ‘Ono’ or ‘Yoko’.
- enter dates as follows: ‘1968/06/14’ [yy/mm/dd] or ‘1968’

Note regarding language: Information was entered in the language of the original document.

SEARCH THE TRACES

The index of documentary materials is also fully searchable. Click the ‘traces/olion’ tab at the top of the Main Entry / Prif Gofnod – then choose “search”. The search is executed as above.

FOUND RECORDS

After you have clicked “go”, the number of found records generated by the search will be displayed at the top of the page.
